

Shan Saba

---

Co-opted Member

Shan was born in Glasgow to Sri Lankan Tamil parents who immigrated to Scotland in the 1970's. He is a graduate of Strathclyde University who has worked within the employment sector for nearly 18 years where he holds a leadership role at the largest recruitment business in Scotland.

He founded the movement Scotland Against Modern Slavery in 2017 with its aim to raise awareness of Modern Slavery and in particular Labour Exploitation within the business community of Scotland. He works with the Human Trafficking Team within the Scottish Government.

Shan is a Trustee Board Member of the Refugee Survival Trust and a committee advisor to Show Racism the Red Card in Scotland.